

HOT FLASHES ALMOST GONE

Woman in Aurora Gets Relief From Troubles by Taking Cardui,
the Woman's Tonic.

Aurora, Ind.—"I was suffering from the change and had those hot flashes and severe backache all the time. At times I could hardly straighten up. I read about Cardui and got a bottle from our druggist, and it helped me at once. Now the hot flashes have almost gone and I feel much better."

"I have recommended Cardui to several lady friends."

You need not be afraid to take Cardui whenever you feel that you need a tonic. Its use will not interfere with that of any other medicine you may be taking. Its action is very gentle and without any bad after effects. Being purely vegetable and non-intoxicating, Cardui can safely be taken by young and old, and can do nothing but good. Cardui acts on woman's constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up womanly nerves, regulating womanly organs. Half a century of success, with thousands of cures similar to the one described above, amply prove its real scientific medicinal merit.

You are urged to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It will help you.

Note.—The Cardui Home Treatment for Women consists of Cardui ($1), Theodore's Black Draught (25¢), Viovo (50¢), for the liver, and Cardui Antiseptic (50¢). These remedies may be taken singly by themselves if desired, or three together, as a complete treatment for women's ills. Write to Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for special instructions and 61-page book "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

VISITORS TO FAIR FLOCK TO CAPITOL

Historic Building Crowded With Sightseers—To Be Open at Night.

APPEAL BOARD HEARS CASE

Decision Upholds Public Printer—Effort to Save Calvin
Johnson's Life.

Visitors to the State Fair yesterday thronged the Capitol, the State Library and the Capitol Square. They inspected the rotunda, rode in the elevator, viewed the agricultural exhibit, gazed upon the counterfeited presentments of the classic features of members of past General Assemblies, looked over the striking forms of the State's high officials, and fed the squirrels to the point of suffocation. They saw the picture of the only member of a figurehead in connection with the State government—that recently removed from the prow of the battleship Virginia. As loyal Virginians they admired the statues and busts and pictures of the State's great dead—back to the earliest Virginian of them all.

Consulting the pleasure and convenience of the city's visitors, Colonel J. W. Richardson, Superintendent of Grounds and Buildings, will keep the rotunda and the agricultural exhibit open and lighted each night this week until 10 o'clock, excepting on Sunday, when the building will close at noon, as usual.

APPEAL IN PRINTING CASE

Housmann Printing Company's Claim
Denied by Board of Appeals.

An appeal from a decision of the Board of Public Printing made by the Board of Appeals yesterday afternoon at the Governor's office and resulted in a decision upholding the Public Printer. The appeal was brought by the Housmann Printing Company, which complained that it should have been awarded the contract for printing Classification 7 of the awards for State printing recently made by Mr. Bottom.

The ground of the appeal was that this concern was the lowest bidder, and that the contract had been let to the Everett Wadley Company instead of to themselves.

Under the statute, appeals from decisions of the Superintendent of Printing are heard by a Board of Appeals composed of the Governor, the Secretary of the Commonwealth and the Auditor of Public Accounts. Before the appeal was heard, the printing concern represented by Alexander H. Sands and Edward L. Ryan, as counsel, the appeal being resisted by Mr. Bottom, who pleaded his own case. After a discussion a decision was quickly reached by the board, upholding the Public Printer.

At the office of the company it was said that it would make no public statement at this time, further than to say that the contract had been awarded to it as the lowest bidder, the State would have saved $105. The statement was made that there would be a public announcement later on.

Classification 7, on which the appeal was taken, comprised the printing of the annual reports of the Auditor of Public Accounts, the Second Auditor and the State Treasurer.

Mr. Bottom's contention was that the Housmann Company did not possess sufficient facilities to properly handle the contract, in addition to other work which was awarded it.

I. L. U. WANTS LICENSE

Application Made by Tobacco Company to Corporation Commission.

Application has been made by the I. L. U. Grand Lodge, of Dayton, O., before the State Corporation Commission in Virginia. This is the concern against which a ruling was made a few days ago by the State Insurance Commissioner's office, instructing police officers throughout the State to arrest its agents engaged in soliciting members. The I. L. U.'s application is not quite in correct shape, but as soon as technicalities are complied with it will be duly licensed.

Then the Insurance Department will have a chance at the I. L. U., which is supposed to mean the International Liberty Union. Its officers claim that

WOULD SAVE NEGRO'S LIFE

Attempt to Secure Writ of Error in Calvin Johnson Case.

In a final effort to save the life of Calvin Johnson, one of the three negroes convicted of the murder at Alexandria, Va., Walter Schultze, Attorney Lewis H. Machen, of that city, is in Richmond endeavoring to secure a writ of error from the Supreme Court. Johnson is sentenced to die in the electric chair on Friday of this week. Dick Pines is sentenced to die on October 15, and the third negro, Eugene Dorsey, on October 22. Mr. Machen does not represent the two latter.

If by Thursday the judges of the Supreme Court have not decided to grant a writ of error, which would act as a stay of execution, Mr. Machen will ask Governor Swanson to reprieve Johnson until such time as all the judges can act on the petition. Any one judge can grant an appeal, but it is sent to each before being finally refused.

John Smith Looking Better.

Another copy of the plaster cast of John Smith in the rotunda of the Capitol. All traces of the process of putting the figure together are now obliterated and the figure presents a more inviting appearance.

Protection Wanted for Records.

Major R. W. Hunter, Secretary of Virginia Military Records, was at his office in the Capitol yesterday, after a vacation. Major Hunter will make an effort before the coming session of the Legislature to secure better protection against fire for the records in his possession. They are at present in wooden cases, and he will endeavor to have them placed in metal filing cases.

It is understood that the Department of Military Records will be removed to the Library annex when the building is finished, and that the present quarters will be occupied as a committee room.

Mr. Kolner Back.

Commissioner of Agriculture George W. Kolner has returned from Augusta county, where he took photographs of some fine Valley orchards for use in his next annual report. He will take more pictures next week.

Official Visits Capitol.

Among the business visitors yesterday to the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts was Thomas J. Watkins, Commonwealth's Attorney of Charlottesville.

CHURCHES ENROLL LARGE NUMBERS

Greater Interest Being Aroused in Laymen's Missionary Movement.

Executive Secretary F. A. Brown, of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, said yesterday that he had received the registration of 190 delegates from Richmond churches, of whom eighty were from Baptist churches and twenty from Methodist churches, as a result of the addresses delivered by laymen on Sunday.

The delegates registered so far are twenty-two from First Baptist, twenty from Centenary Methodist, with twenty alternates, twenty from Second Baptist and twenty from Venable Street Baptist Church. Mr. Brown believes there will be close to 500 delegates from the Richmond churches and between 500 and 700 from the churches in other cities and counties throughout the State, swelling the total attendance of this convention to probably 1,200 or more.

The Ministerial Association, composed of all the ministers of Richmond and Manchester, met yesterday afternoon and approved the movement of the laymen as far as they have gone, and arranged to give valuable assistance in furthering the movement. O. H. Funsten's committee on local arrangement met yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock and took up the details of entertaining the delegates at a supper. At 8 o'clock last night, H. H. Tolland's committee on city deputations met and gave encouraging reports on their reception and reports of their preaching in Richmond and Manchester Sunday. To-day at 1:30 the executive committee will meet in the Business Men's Club to further plans of this big meeting.

REPUBLICANS ARE STATE-WIDE JOKE

Congressman Jones Says Their Much-Vaunted Campaign
Has Fallen Flat.

SPOTSYLVANIA IS IN LINE

Address to Be Made To-Day—
Visitors Say Situation Is Good for Democrats.

For absolute failure to live up to the advertisements the Republican party in Virginia takes the prize. In the opinion of Congressman William A. Jones, of the First District, who spent last night at Murphy's. Their campaign has fallen flat, he thinks, and how they can be pleased with the situation is beyond his comprehension.

Heralded throughout the State as the liveliest campaign in the history of the party, with a platform which was to cause the Democrats all kinds of trouble, with an array of speakers to clean up all corners on the stump, and with a public sentiment which was to grind the dominant party to powder, the Republican position has, Mr. Jones believes, assumed the proportions of a State-wide joke. No enthusiasm whatever has been engendered among the party workers, he says, and the performance has become so tame that nobody thinks seriously about the Virginia Republicans any more.

As for the collection of speakers from Northern States, with which the public is to be deluged later in the month, Mr. Jones sincerely hopes that nothing will happen to prevent their coming. He thinks the people will not take very kindly to an importation of outside orators in a campaign involving purely State issues.

Mr. Jones is more than pleased with the situation in Spotsylvania county, where he spoke yesterday. The finest spirit prevails there, and he gained the impression from local leaders that the Democratic majority in the county and city of Fredericksburg will surely be as large, and probably larger than normal. Republican opposition in the legislative fight has aroused the workers to action, and the election of Mr. Coleman, the Democratic nominee for the House, is expected by a substantial majority.

Speeches To-Day.
Public addresses by Democrats today will be delivered by Congressman John Lamb and Dr. D. S. Freeman, at King William, and by Congressman Walter A. Jones, at Yorktown.

Other addresses were announced yesterday by the State Committee as follows:
Judge Wm. H. Mann—Greenville, August county, October 5, day; Fairfield, Rockbridge county, October 8, night; Waynesboro, October 9; Goochland, October 11; Drake's Branch, Charles county, October 12; Courtland, Southampton county, October 13.
Senator Don P. Halsey—Floyd, October 11.
Congressman Lamb—Goochland, October 11.

Candidate Green Here.

Raleigh T. Green, of Culpeper, who is a candidate for clerk of the House of Delegates, is in the city. Mr. Green expects the usual Democratic fight in his section of the State. Alden Bell, the present member of the House from Culpeper, who has been renominated by the Democrats, has no opposition.

Judge Williams Confident.

Judge Martin Williams, of Giles county, is in Richmond. Judge Williams fully indorses the statement by former State Senator P. F. St. Clair, that he will succeed himself in the House. Judge Williams's opponent is Charles Bane, an independent Republican.

Democrats All Right.

GAVE TRUE BILL IN MURDER CASE

Henrico Grand Jury Indicts
Hampton for Killing
Charles Cooke.

Indictments were brought by the Henrico county grand jury yesterday against T. E. Hampton, for the murder of Charles Cooke, and in the case of Charles Deane, charged with shooting County Policeman Douglas L. Temple. Hampton is out on bail furnished by his employer, and Deane is in jail. Hampton will be tried Thursday.

It is claimed by Hampton that he did the killing in self-defense, as Cooke was advancing on him with a blackjack. He fired first in the ground, and when Cooke made no halt, he sent the next charge into his left side, killing him almost instantly.

The shooting of Temple, it is alleged, was done by Deane in a fit of anger following a row with his father, who had sworn out the warrant and placed it in the officer's hands. As Temple was in the act of serving the paper, Deane fired upon him, filling him with shot from his waist down. Temple was not seriously injured, but a preliminary trial until three weeks after he was wounded.

Several other true bills of a minor character were returned.

THRILLS CROWD BY NERVY TRIP IN AEROPLANE

The slightest defect may cause a tremendous mishap, resulting in loss of life, and so tests are made only under the most favorable conditions.

Crowd Cheered Wildly.

When the aeroplane settled after its second flight the crowd again gave way to its feelings, and cheers resounded for the aviator. It was the first time that such a flight had ever been attempted here, and it was a good augur for the other days of the week that the first effort was attended with such success.

Mr. Willard stated afterwards that he would try for an ascent during the early afternoon to-day, and that if all conditions were favorable there would be several flights. It will be necessary to repair the machinery and to affix new parts in several places before another attempt can be made.

Many more could have seen the flights yesterday had it been generally known that it was to be made, but most of the people, thinking that no effort would be made, left the grounds to-day higher and longer ascents will be tried, and on Wednesday, said Mr. Willard, the aeroplane will be carried over the trees at the far end of the field and brought back without touching ground. But such an attempt yesterday would have smashed him in the trees, and it would have been the end of the aeroplane and himself.

Saw Ambulance Nearby.

He smiled when, as he landed on the return trip, he saw the ambulance drawn up close alongside. "It's somewhat comforting," he said, "to see the ambulance, for you never know when you may need it. The nerves of the man become tense and strained, and his tense nerves by gazing at the curious crowd and listening to their loud whispered prophecies that the time would come when man would fly, he drives to them in his motor car. As the slender air machine vibrates and becomes tense to the twenty-four hundred revolutions to the minute of the propeller, the nerves of the man become tense and strained, and the light laugh after reaching terra firma again comes something like the sob of an exhausted. A bystander put it well when he remarked: 'It looks easy, but I bet it ain't!'"

CROWD SEES PLENTY OF GOOD SPORT WITH NO GAMBLING

Horses Ran True to Form, Public Approving Clean Racing Without Bookmakers.

BAD FALL IN STEEPLECHASE

Mr. Goodwin Thrown, Collarbone Being Broken—Two Others Fall, But Were Unhurt.

From the time Fred A. Upton, of Rochester, N. Y., sent a field of eleven starters around the Virginia State Fair track at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in opening the racing program, until David Dunlop's Takahira came under the wire a throng of thousands of the mile run, the first day's harness and running events were conducted in a manner which gave promise of the most successful week of sport ever held in Virginia.

At 1:15, by an accident in the steeplechase, the races, for a first day, indicated that the committee in charge of arrangements has done its work well, and has procured for the delectation of local followers of the turf some of the best talent in horses and riders to be found in the country. There were rough edges, of course, but these were due, it is explained, to the fact that the riders and drivers have not become familiar with the methods of judges and starters.

Gamblers Are Missing.
It is hard, even around the judges' stand, where the gamblers generally congregate, to learn the favorites, so that the law in this respect being enforced, and what bets were made yesterday were between and among friends, and the amounts invariably fell short of a ten-spot. The bookmakers got busy just before the steeplechase, but they were soon detected and routed. The tout is missing, and everything considered, the general conduct of the crowd could not have been improved upon.

None of the devices by which the honest wage-earner is fleeced of his hard-earned coin, and which sounded the death knell to race-track gambling in New York and other States, is in evidence. Every applicant for a privilege to conduct any game of chance under the grandstand has been refused, and that there will be no let-up on the part of the management is best evidenced by one who sought to procure a right. His expression is: "I guess I'll have to get a concession on the lane."

Presiding Judge S. S. Toman, of New York, formerly editor of the Trotter and Pacer, and one of the best known turf journalists in America, was once secretary of the Empire City track. His comment to the methods undertaken by the local officials for the suppression of gambling is that he has never seen a more successful one. He was more conspicuous by his absence. Mr. Toman presides over the harness events, while General William T. Townes, of the Arlington Stud, Culpeper, Va., is in charge of the running races. The assistant judge is W. J. Carter, of Manchester, who, with Thomas S. Hoghead, of Staunton, is official timekeeper. P. A. S. Brine, of this city, is secretary.

No Split Heats.

There were no split heats in any of the harness races. Rockland, Arlo and Victor ran one, two, three in the 2:35 trot, while Daisy Prince and Sassafras Boy, each having won the best event of the afternoon, divided fourth money. Dug Thomas was distanced in the 2:12 pace, and in the two heats Lucius Todd finished first, Brookline Chimes second and Skiddoo third. Ray Egwood was an easy winner in the two heats of the third race, but the decision for second money was close. Edmee J. ran well in the opening heat, but in the second he was a bad cure a right. His expression is: "I guess I'll have to get a concession on the lane."

The full committee on Grounds and Buildings meets Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

TRAINED FLEAS AT THE FAIR.

Prof. Brown's Flea Circus will be a chief attraction at the Fair this week. These flea artists appear in various performances, drawing carriages, automobiles, bicycles, juggling, operating a carousel, doing tricks on slack wire, presenting large pantomime ballets in ladies' costumes, fighting duels running races and different other realistic feats.

Every flea has its name, and every act is visible with naked eyes.
